An Introduction to the Wildfowl of Sussex

Friday 6th November 2015
10am to 4pm

Where
Amberley, nr Arundel

Cost
£42 Non-Members
£30 Members

Description
This course looks at the wildfowl, geese and ducks that can be seen in Sussex throughout the year.

No previous knowledge of wildfowl needed, just a general interest in birds.

What we’ll do
The morning session will be in the classroom and then in the afternoon we will go to the nearby Pulborough Brooks Nature to look at some of the wildfowl that can be found on the reserve in the winter. Entrance to the Reserve is free to RSPB members but there is a fee for non-members.

The tutor
Mike Russell has worked for the Trust since 1985 and in addition to organising and teaching courses, also leads wildlife holidays for Wildlife Travel, a company set up in 1988 to initially run holidays worldwide for members of the Wildlife Trusts but now open to anyone. The Company donates all its profits to the Wildlife Trusts.

Suitability and other info
This course is designed primarily for adults; participants aged 14 to 16 years must be accompanied by an adult.

What to bring
