Parent and Child Bushcraft Day

When
Saturday 17 January 2015

Where
Woods Mill Nature Reserve, Henfield, West Sussex, BN5 9SD

Cost
parent + child £42

£30

Description
A chance for parents and older children to learn bushcraft and survival skills whilst sharing in the joy of the outdoors. For one adult with child of 9+ years. Activities covered will include basic and advanced fire lighting from natural materials, shelter building, green woodworking, whittling, as well as wildlife ID and tracking skills.

What we’ll do
Participants will have the chance to work individually, in pairs and in small groups on a variety of tasks. Everyone will take home something they have made using tools and whittling skills.

Warm lunch (stew) will be cooked on the fire and hot drinks will be provided, but participants are also asked to bring a packed lunch.

No previous experience or skill required. We will be in the field unless the weather is extreme.

The tutor
Ryan Greaves and Vicky Clapperton
