Don’t litter the beach

Design a poster about litter on the beach

When you design your poster, don’t forget to include these important things.

What do you want to tell people who will read the poster?
What information do you want to include?
Use bright and bold pictures to catch people’s eye and make them want to read.
Make your messages simple and clear and don’t use too many words.
If you can, include other information such as anti-litter websites you have found.
