The Visit

- Working individually or as a group children make a list of the things they remember about the visit.
- Pick out and list the best ‘bits’ of the visit.
- Produce a wall collage of the river valley showing the features the children remember from the visit.
- Write an account of the visit.
- Complete the river flow exercise by working out the speed of the river using data collected.